

Missional Business Network

§1 Membership:

Membership is determined by the Collective network and offered to Christian business men/women.

Criteria for membership are as follows:

Members must own controlling shares in a business.

Members must affirm and hold to values and objectives outlined in the Missional Business Charter.

All members commit to the following:

- Implementing an action plan that conforms existing or planned businesses to the Missional Business Charter.
- Demonstrating the values and objectives set out in the Missional Business Charter on an ongoing basis.

All members have a right to the following:

1. Full access to all round table meetings:

A collection of Christian entrepreneurs who gather regularly to discuss current affairs, market opportunities, Kingdom objectives & offer each other encouragement & mutual aid.

Eg: Entrepreneur testimonies, connecting needs, discussing opportunities, Navigating issues – cultural encroachment, bad staff, cashflow

2. The skill pool:

A list of skilled individuals/companies across diverse industries that are considered good & ethical based upon the experience and therefore recommendation of fellow members.

3. Membership Directory:

Be listed on the public online directory which promotes and advertises it's members.

§2 Termination of Membership:

Members can be removed from membership by the Collective for the following reasons:

- No longer own controlling shares in a business.
- Offense against the standards and objectives of the Missional Business Charter.

Members can choose to terminate their membership.

All forms of termination must be done in writing to/from the administrator with 30 days notice.